

Did you know that...

because we live in a democracy, we have the right to choose? Therefore, in the General Elections on April 11, 2021, we will elect the people who will hold the positions of:

■ President and Vice President. The president of the republic exercises the leadership of the Executive Branch and of the Armed Forces and the National Police of Peru. In addition, he or she directs the general policy of the State. Those who occupy the position of vice president replace the president of the republic in circumstances determined by the Constitution.

■ Congressman. Its functions are:

- Representing citizens, i.e. Listening to their concerns and proposals..
- Legislate, which is to propose and approve, through debate, laws that benefit the country.
- To oversee or exercise political control of the Government and the public administration in general.

■ Andean Parliamentarian. Its function is to represent us before the Andean Parliament. With its counterparts in Colombia, Chile, Ecuador, and Bolivia, it proposes measures on problems that affect the Andean Community in education, migration, security, environment, climate change, entrepreneurship, among others.

For the period 2021-2026, we will elect a president and two vice presidents, as well as one hundred and thirty congressmen and five regular representatives, and ten alternates for the Andean Parliament.

It will be the first time that Peruvian citizens living abroad will elect their representatives in the Congress of the Republic (two of the one hundred and thirty).

How to vote in each election?

Mark with an X (X) or a plus sign (+) only for one political organization each time. The mark must be within the box of the symbol or the photo; otherwise, the vote will be void.

- If you make another type of mark, your vote will also be void. In the section for president and vice presidents, you can mark the symbol or the photo.
- In the section for congressmen and Andean Parliament, you can mark a symbol and, next to it, write the number of one or two of the candidates of your choice.

If you don't mark a box, your vote will be considered to be blank.
