from 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

We will elect:

- 1 President of the Republic
- 2 Deputy Presidents

In order to cast the right to vote, remind:

- The voting starts at 8:00 A.M. and ends at 4:00 P.M.
- The voting is not obligatory for people aged over 70.
- Peruvian Identity Card (ID) is the only document valid to cast the right to vote.
- Polling stations will be the same as at the first election.
- Verify your polling station, the number of your voting table, room and order in the electoral register at Peruvian Consulate or on www.onpe.gob.pe in advance.

Polling supervisors:

- Your participation at this second presidential election is essential to guarantee the right to vote and the affirmation of our democracy.
- If you were elected as polling supervisor for the election held on April 10th, 2016, you will assume the post against on Sunday Jun 5th, 2016. Those polling supervisors, who did not exercise the post, will be able to do it at this second election.
- Training day addressed to polling supervisors will be held on May 29th, 2016.
- Attend to install voting table at 7:00 A.M. and thus guaranteeing the normal development of electoral day.

Electoral fines:

- If you were elected as polling supervisor, you must attend to exercise this duty; on the contrary, you will must pay a fine for not installing voting table that amounts to 5% of Tax Units (ITU).
- If you did not install voting table at the first election and you do not fulfill your duty at this second election to be held on June 5th, 2016, you will accumulate an additional fine and thus you will have two fines for not fulfilling polling supervisor's duty, which figure will amount to 10% of Tax Units (ITU) (ITU valid until 2016).
