

It suggests electors to find out the order number to appear in the list of electors

ONPE announces recommendations to speed up the voting and prevent lines and crowds on June 5th 2016

The National Office of Electoral Processes of Peru (ONPE) suggested all electors to find out the number of election official table and the order number, which will appear in the list of electors, in advance in order to accelerate the voting during the Second Presidential Election to be held on June 5th and thus reducing crowd and lines.

ONPE has put website www.onpe.gob.pe, in the module https://consultamiembrodemesa.onpe.gob.pe/consultalv_eg_2016/, at the service of all electors in order to find out this information by entering only their Peruvian Identity Card (ID).

Likewise, that information can be gotten by accessing to Local de Votación application, available for mobile devices using Android and iOS operating systems, which, besides providing information, contributes to knowing the fastest route, across which arriving in the polling station.

In order to prevent crowd and lines during the Jun 5th election day, it has decided that the critical polling stations rely on an election official table per each room, depending of the availability of them, and up to polling booths are installed in each one of them, ONPE informed.

Thus, while an elector is casting his vote, other can go registering before polling supervisors in order to save time and make the voting more accelerated.

Other factor, which will help to prevent crowd, is the punctuality of polling supervisors, since the delay or absence of a polling supervisor delay the start of voting, the electoral organization indicated. So, they are urged to attend taking up their duty from 7:00 A.M.
